Welcome Home

Dear Homeowner,

Congratulations and Welcome to your new EcoSun Home!

Allow us to express our sincerest gratitude for your decision to purchase an EcoSun Home. We are confident that it will be a continuous source of pleasure for you and your family. We proudly extend our best wishes for many years of happiness and fulfillment in your new home.

The purchase of a new home is indeed a momentous occasion and a huge investment. With this in mind, we have designed this Homeowner Manual especially for you. This manual includes information that will assist you during the lifetime of ownership. It also includes recommendations on how to care for your new home, while helping you to maintain the value and appearance of your home.

In addition, the warranty section in this manual will help you to understand EcoSun Home's 2-10 Warranty Program in, its limitations, as well as the easy process of submitting a claim. Our Customer Service Department is dedicated to serving you and responding to warranty claims. Our relationship with you, our customer, continues after the purchase of your new home to reassure you that your investment are well protected.

We are delighted to welcome you as part of the EcoSun family and are always ready to serve you as you begin a new chapter of your life in a new home. As the opportunity presents itself, we would greatly appreciate your recommendation to friends and family.

Sincerely,

Rubi Akooka
